Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

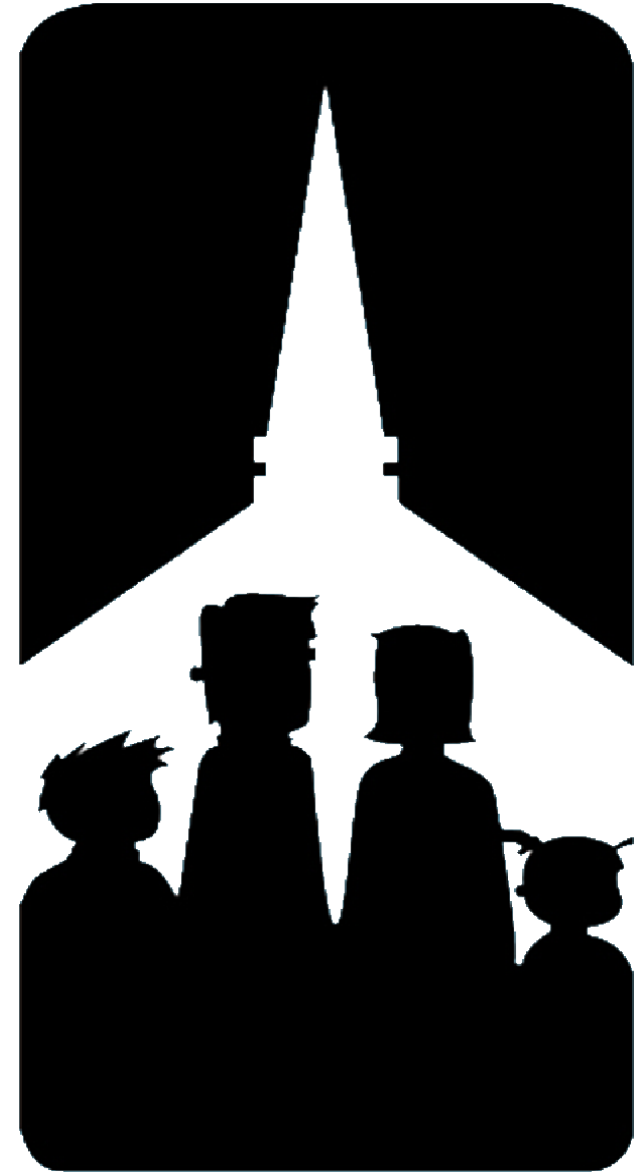

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Sunday School begins at 9:30 and lasts until 10:15
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors has dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group "Go" which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.
- We also currently have one of our HomeGroups meeting at this time.
- On the Last Wednesday of every month we do a free dinner (Usually pasta) open to the community. From 5:00-6:30.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

The 52 Club is a $1 a week investment by our Adults and Teens. The money given is later earned back when our students volunteer their time in a 52 Club service project. This is the perfect way for students to raise money for events like camp. And a perfect way for Adults to get to know our students!

Game Night

The youth group has their monthly game night coming up! Students remember to invite your friends out.

Being genuine is a difficult task. In our society today we have a lot of social mannerism that cause us to keep hidden from one another our truest self. Even among those whom we are closest with there are often guarded thoughts and secrets. Now I'm not talking about all those random things you think about the world around you but feel as though those things aren't appropriate to share. They're probably not. You can keep those things.

I'm talking about the things that hide who you really are from everyone around you. "But I'm not proud of who I am Pastor!" Here is a little secret. Most of us aren't. Everyone has bumps and bruises in their lives. Everyone has things about them they know aren't great. That's why we have developed the habit of keeping our true selves hidden away from the prying eyes of others. We have somehow come to believe that everyone but us is better and free of problems.

If that were the case, then mankind would not need a Savior. The fact is ... we do. We desperately do. And our Savior is very concerned with our ability, or for most of us, our inability to be genuine with one another. He wants us to be able to be who we truly are, and He has good reason for it.

For starters hiding who you are from the rest of the world is a form of lying. When we put on an act that is an attempt to convince everyone around us that we are something other than what we really are we are practicing in deception.

I understand why we do it. We're ashamed of who we really are. And while there may be some truth to how we feel. There is power in the truth and confronting who we really are, but it's so very difficult to do that. The trick is though ... Christ wants to use who you really are not the image you want to put forth for other people to see. He knows. He knows that you're a mess on the inside. That you're a mess on the outside. But He is willing and able to use that mess for His glory. So Let Him.
