
At Whitewater Family Church we strive to pursue God with honesty and excellence by building stronger families, engaging in mentor based discipleship, and encouraging personal calling and ministry.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Sunday School begins at 9:30 and lasts until 10:15
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors has dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group "Go" which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.
- We also currently have one of our HomeGroups meeting at this time.
- On the Last Wednesday of every month we do a free dinner (Usually pasta) open to the community. From 5:00-6:30.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Our youth Discipleship group meets Thursday nights.
- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.

Friday and Saturday: Are typically reserved for special events.

Game Night

Calling is perhaps one of the most misunderstood functions in the church today. The problem is we often like to think about calling as something more akin to Moses than to the Egyptian Slaves. And for a certain point of view that is true.

Moses had something very specific to do, and it required a certain closeness to God that others did not need. However, personally what each individual slave was called to do was equally important to God as what he had asked of Moses. In essence, not everyone's calling is specific, but everyone's calling is important. Vitally so.

It is even more important to point out that just because a calling may be of a more nonspecific variety it does not make it any less of a responsibility. We have this tendency to look at things that are apparent and easily identified as more important. For example, we tend to look at the work of a Overseas Missionary as more important than the work of a Home Missionary. You might want to argue that point, but the money trail tells a different story.

In God's eyes that simply is not the case. Everything we are asked to do is absolutely important when compared to everything else. Moses' job to lead the Hebrews as a nation was not more important than the Hebrew father's job to lead his family as individuals.

The biggest problems come when we have to decide what to do with what we have. How does the average person identify a specific calling in their life? That is both tricky and easy. I have found that very often God does not give us specifics. He simply wants us to be the most Christlike we can with the life we've been given. To be the best wife, employee, student, etc... Other times it is far more specific. Good news there is though, He usually makes that abundantly clear. You know burning bushes and talking donkeys and whales and being blinded off a horse and things like that.

Parables: Talents and Calling

Matthew 25:14–30

- I. The master in the parable has many servants. Each one has a varying level of ability.
- II. Each servant is given a talent of gold, with no instructions on how to use it. It is simply understood that they are to multiply it using their ability.
- III. It shouldn't have to be explained to us that we have a personal calling to use what we have been blessed with to benefit others.
- IV. It is important to note that your calling has far more to do with people than it does with procedure.
