Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Sunday School begins at 9:30 and lasts until 10:15
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors has dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group "Go" which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.

To say that it has been a difficult week is perhaps the world's greatest understatement. I've had plenty of difficult weeks over the years. I've been at a mother's bedside with a stillborn baby. I've laid young men who died in combat far from home to rest. I've held the hand of dying friends as they breathed their last, and buried those who've died far too young. I've lost my own parent, and I've been with parents who lost their children. And yet nothing so far has been quite like this past week.

Maybe it was last week's message. The one about opportunities and how they come quickly and far even faster. How you only have so much time and how one day it will be gone. Maybe it was the reality of what I preach on Sunday far too often becomes a very real truth for someone on Monday. The truth is ... I was always telling myself I should get to know Kim and Ken better. "Maybe tomorrow, or next time." I'd say ...

Tomorrow is a day on a fool's calendar. No one is guaranteed that day. All that we have is today. So what do we do with today? We make the very most of it. We put aside foolish things that avail nothing and grasp what truly matters in life. What are those things? Well, the specifics of it differ for everyone, but generally what really matters falls into one category. People. People are all that matter.

Christ did not come to earth to accumulate wealth. He did not need fame and political power to accomplish His task. He did not appear so that we would fall at His feet and revel in His greatness. He has the riches of Heaven. All the Glory in the Universe. He does not need us to worship Him. No friends, those are things mankind believes in. Christ came because the human race needed a cure for its brokenness and He descended from the throne of eternity to administer that cure. Christ came because He loves people. He came for people.

That's what was important to Him then ... and it still is.

The Thief Steals, Kills, & Destroys.

John 10:1-18

- I. Who is the Thief? Most assume the thief is the devil ... it is not. Some guess the thief is the world, wicked people, or some calamity. That too would be in error. No my friends, the thief is and always has been Misguided Beliefs.
- II. What does the Thief steal? The Thief attempts to steal the truth away from God's people.
- III. What does the Thief kill? Faith, hope, love, etc. ... all the things that a believer is supposed to develop in their pursuit of being Christ-like.
- IV. What does the Thief destroy? You and all that God intended for good in your life.
