Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors has dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group "Go" which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.
- We also currently have our HomeGroups meeting at this time.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Our youth Discipleship group meets Thursday nights.
- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.
- There is another HomeGroup at the Gleason's home starting at 6:30.

Friday and Saturday: Are typically reserved for special events.

Palm Sunday.

The beginning of the end for Jesus' earthly ministry is celebrated today. And we often look at it as a celebration. However, I don't think Jesus necessarily felt that way about it. In fact the scripture records two different attitudes displayed by the Lord as he traveled into Jerusalem to the cheers of crowds and the scowls of those who would later crucify Him.

First lets deal with the cheering. He embraced it to some degree and did nothing to stop it. In fact when the Pharisees called upon Him to do so He responded that if even He commanded the people to be silent, then the rocks would cry out in praise. So surely this was an event that was worthy of praise. The King was coming to take His throne.

But that very same thing caused Jesus to weep and lament for the people who were laying palm leaves down before Him. They wanted an earthly king, and so they were acting out of a response to that desire. Christ was coming to be crowned with the pain and sorrow that would free mankind from its awful state of separation from the Kingdom of God.

As people we often tend to get excited over the wrong things. Wait ... let me change that. As people we often tend to get excited over the things that we believe to be important. Our behaviors always follow our beliefs... The quiet and stoic man who does not get excited at church is the same man who easily goes crazy the moment a sports team scores the winning points. The reserved and proud woman doesn't show enthusiasm for worship but the second a favorite song is on the radio reservation is gone.

It is often said you only believe the part of the Bible that you do. That is such a powerfully true statement. It is a very contemporary way of saying Faith without Works is dead ... and I often wonder how much time we spend with dead faith. Dead and waving palm branches because that is what we believe we should be doing. I wonder how often Jesus weeps for us ...
