Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

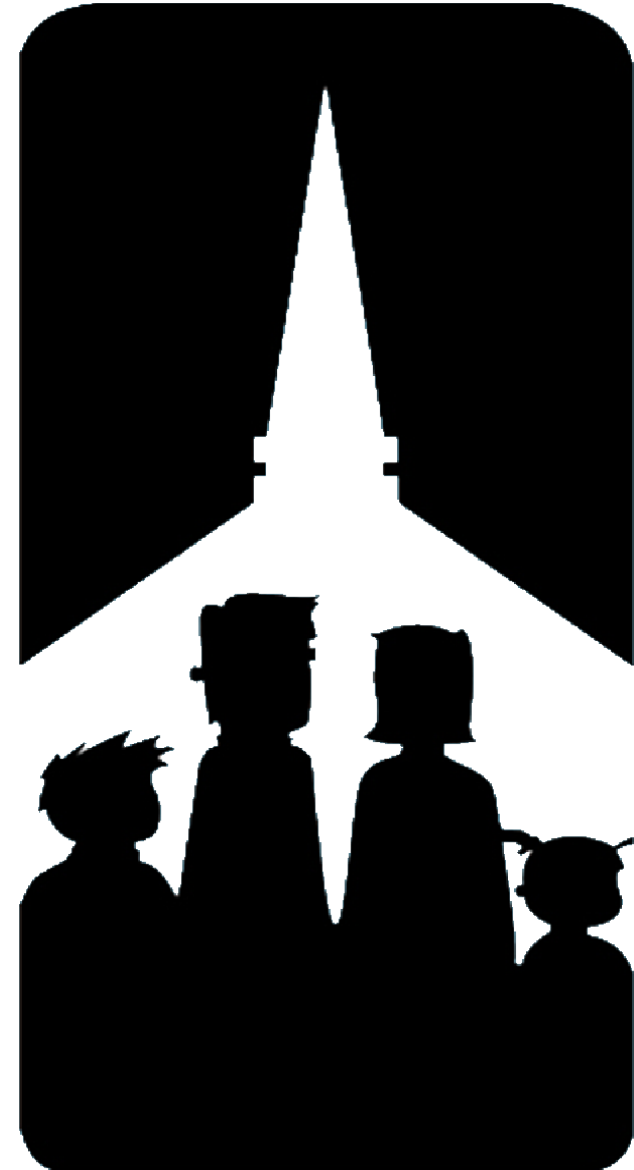

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors has dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group "Go" which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.
- We also currently have our HomeGroups meeting at this time.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Our youth Discipleship group meets Thursday nights.
- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.
- There is another Homegroup at the Gleason's home starting at 6:30.

Friday and Saturday: Are typically reserved for special events.

Relationship Status = It's Complicated ...

God has a very special relationship with this world. It is His creation so He has a sense of ownership to it. But at the same time He gave dominion of it away to mankind, and so that ownership passed along to us. Unfortunately we forfeited the right to our authority long ago in the Garden of Eden and instead of us keeping it, dominion passed along to the Devil. Even more unfortunately, we were included in that deal ... Yet Christ died to restore all things including us! But only those who love and serve Him. And to rectify that some day there will be a new Heaven and a New Earth, and so.....

It's complicated. Very complicated.

It all comes down to this. The life of the redeemed is connected to a lot of different aspects of God's creation. Spiritually our priority relationship is with Christ. Earthly though, while our families have priority in all things. I would like to suggest that no earthly relationships are more important spiritually than the ones we have with those who are not yet believers in Christ. See, it is very complicated.

We have things that must take priority, but all of those other things, if they are in proper alignment will reflect the everlasting importance of our relationship with lost people.

After all, didn't Jesus come to the Earth for the lost? He didn't come for the righteous, and He didn't come for the healthy. He came for the Lost Children. Why? Because they are in a more urgent and dire state, and that drove Him to the cross. It should drive us too.

The Resurrection and Relationships

2nd Corinthians 2

- I. The Resurrection changes the nature of your RELATIONSHIP with the world.*
- II. On one hand, you must change your LIFESTYLE in order to live in a Holy and Sanctified way.*
- III. On the other hand, you are called to be an ambassador of Christ to those who are lost.*
- IV. You could think of yourself as a LIFE GUARD. Not there to participate, but there to save.*
