Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors have dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- We also currently have our HomeGroups meeting at this time.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Our youth Discipleship group meets Thursday nights.
- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.

HomeGroup Tuesday 6:30pm (On Hold till after the Holidays)

Home-Groups are designed to grow your faith, connect to your church family, and share the love of Christ with your community.

Someday there will be a time when God puts an end to all things and puts the world right. This is a time that all believers should be looking forward to. However, this is going to be a time of great distress and sorrow for many. It will also be a time of great joy for many others.

It is something we are supposed to dwell on and never let slip from our thought process. The idea of Christ's eminent return should frame our every thought and action. If we truly believe and are awaiting the return of the King of Kings then we should do all things different.

When we see a person on the street we should wonder— If Christ were to return now, what would be their fate?" When we talk with someone who "believes" in God but has doubts about Jesus being the Son of God and our Messiah do we think about their fate if Christ were to come back at that very moment? We should think about those we know at work, those we are connected to in our leisure activities, and all of those in our families. What is going to happen to them?

It can be very disheartening to think about the final fate of those we know and love. It can be dismal to ponder the eternal reality of all those who walk our streets and cross through our lives. And yet ...

It shouldn't be only troubling. There should also be hope. But that hope depends on something. Something very important. Something that relies on one major thing. The hope of mankind settles on whether or not we actually share the Gospel with them. If we adequately share the Gospel then their fate becomes a matter of Hope. And hope is in God's hands not our. And that is a good thing.
