Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors have dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group, which meets starting at 6:30 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.
- We also currently have our HomeGroups meeting at this time.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.

Friday and Saturday: Are typically reserved for special events.

HomeGroup Tuesday 6:30pm (On Hold till after the Holidays)

Home-Groups are designed to grow your faith, connect to your church family, and share the love of Christ with your community.

The job and the roll of the Elder, Deacon, Pastor ...

These are the people Peter refers to this week in our study. While much could be said as to the role of anyone who is older in the faith I would like this mornings bulletin blurb to reflect once concept.

Passing the Christian Life along.

While not directly covered in this mornings text. It is an extremely safe interpretation to apply the concept of mentor and ministry to many of the phrases Peter uses when discussing an Elder's responsibility to the rest of the flock. Care for, watch over, and serve are all things Peter encourages us to do in the passage.

For us 2000 years later, that looks a lot like the concepts of teaching and mentorship. Now, that idea isn't simply limited to the elected and appointed leaders of a church. Each and everyone of us should be passing on what Christ has done for us to believers younger than us. To those whose faith isn't as mature as our own.

Furthermore in this matter, do not sell yourself short on your ability to do so. You all have experiences that serve as examples of how best to and how best not to live for Christ. Being open and passing these ideas along to the next generation of believers isn't only a good thing. It isn't only a right thing. It is a Necessary thing.

If the church is to grow in 21st century America it isn't going to do so because of programs and slick preaching. Maybe its sad, but Americans don't go for solid arguments and intelligent expressions. We are moved and convinced by the way people live. And those in the faith behind us will need to be convinced. That's your job. Do it!
