Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

WHITEWATER FAMILY CHURCH

At Whitewater Family Church we take an honest approach to connecting individuals to something greater than themselves

Things we do Every Week

Sunday: As Most Church's do, we have several things happening Sundays

- First, we have coffee and fellowship from about 9:00-On
- Morning Worship starts at 10:30 and typically wraps up about 11:30
- Sunday evenings usually have nothing planned but things do pop up.

Monday: Is the church's Administration day.

- You will typically find the majority of the staff and their spouses in the building from 5:00pm-8:30pm. Our team of pastors have dinner together then talk about the business of the church. The Actual "staff" meeting begins around 6:30. We always close our evening with a prayer time. These meetings, the dinner, and Prayer are open to anyone from the church, but we do ask you let us know ahead of time, when possible, so we can plan for you.
- The first Monday of every month is Staff/Deacon Meeting.
- One Monday a quarter is our All Church Leadership/Vision Meeting.

Tuesday: Are typically Church work days.

- There is almost always something going on Tuesday nights at the Church. From complex remodel work to simple cleanups. Tuesday is a great time to volunteer a little elbow grease and help out.

Wednesday: Like most churches, there always things going on Wednesdays.

- Wednesday's main event is our Jr/Sr High Youth Group, which meets starting at 6:00 and goes till 8:30ish. Youth ministry always seems to have that little variation in its ending time depending on the week.

Thursday: Is an evening for meeting and ministry.

- Pastor Mike and Lynn keep this evening open as often as possible to meet with people from the Church family, whether it is a more formal meeting or just dinner.

Friday and Saturday: Are typically reserved for special events.

Darrel Crosby-Visitation 5:30-7:30 Monday

Darrel Crosby passed away this last week. He and his wife Kim have been attending when their trucking schedule allowed for over a year now. If you can head over and show Kim some support that would be great. It will be held at the Hass-Lockwood Funeral Home in Elkhorn.

So last week I talked about how hard it can be for an “elder” in the church to do the job of mentoring “young” believers. That it is often a job filled with all manner of emotional issues along with ups and downs of various kinds. However, it being difficult does not absolve us of our responsibility to do it.

THIS week I’m going to put the shoe on the other foot. I’m going to talk about the challenges and necessity of being mentored by people older than you. And it is a challenge that involves a lot of things. Well, not really, it mostly just involves shutting up and doing what you are told to do. Which for our current climate of Americans and Especially American believers is exceptionally hard.

Look ... no one likes being told what to do. And no one likes being told that what they are doing is wrong. But if you have a more experienced person in your life telling you X,Y, and Z, you are going to spend a lot of days being told what you should be doing and plenty more being told that you are wrong.

And you know what. It is awful. And you know what else ... you are wrong. Lets face it inexperience leads us to making mistakes. Lots of them. The moment we begin to believe that we know more than someone who has experienced life is the moment we are setting our selves up for the worst kinds of failures.

Having experience doesn’t automatically mean you’re going to be right. But it does mean you’re going to have a way better idea of what is coming than those who don’t. So those of us who lack in experience would do well to listen, and in many cases ... just do what we were told to do.
