Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

So lets talk about a moment where it would appear on every level that Jesus is being a jerk to someone. And I'm not talking about evasive, doesn't give a straight answer, gonna redirect you toward something else jerk Jesus. I'm talking about Him being rude and intentionally insulting to someone.

There comes this woman who has a demon possessed daughter and is suffering terribly. And she is begging for Jesus to heal her little girl. And what we gather from the text is that Jesus is simply ignoring her. Which isn't too out of character for Him. Jesus often waits to see if someone was really looking to Him before doing something about their problem.

The disciples approach Him and ask Him to send her away because she is being a bother. Which leads to the conversation she has with Him regarding what she wants. To which he responds "No I won't do this for you because my mission is to the Jews." now she was a Canaanite and the Jews had, had long standing problems with these people all the way back to the beginning of their history.

She continues to pleads and then Jesus responds with a flat out insult. He calls her and her people dogs. "It is not to take the bread of the children and toss it to the dogs." WHAT?!

And she responds with even the dogs get the crumbs from the Masters table. To which Jesus responds that she has great faith and heals her daughter. He give her what she asked for even if she didn't fit the requirements.

So what do we learn. That God does things to us that seem backsetting, but they're intended to spur our faith forward not hinder us. And because of that we need to keep pressing in to Him
