Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

I know it's crazy to think about but it will be here before you know. So let's stay ahead of the game!

So what was the strangest thing that Jesus has ever done. Well, in my opinion, that is the fact that He loves us. And no I'm not kidding, and there is no quippy Pastor Mike-ism or turn of phrase coming. I find it absolutely and positively strange that God chooses to love us.

Why? Well basically because we're not a very faithful people. Anyone remember 911? Not the morning when it started, but the afternoon. And the following Sunday. Churches were full, full to overflowing in some cases. Filled with people who needed the reassuring touch of God in their lives. They needed Him so they wouldn't be afraid.

And then they were gone ... two maybe three weeks later. Just gone.

Life went back to normal and people felt that they no longer needed God or His strength.

How do you continue to love someone like that. Someone who constantly hurts you. Who continually does things that are against your desires and wishes. Someone who doesn't seem to really care that they disappoint you time and time again. How in the world do you do that?

I can tell you that it is only because of His amazing capacity for love and forgiveness that we even have a chance. Somehow, He understands something that we don't when it comes to love. That despite all of the bad choices people make. Despite the hurts and the pains we cause. Despite the betrayals. Despite the habit to ignore. Despite our wanton disobedience. Despite our sins.

To Him, we are still worth it.

And that is the strangest and most glorious thing in the entirety of creation. That while we were still sinners ... God loved us.
