Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

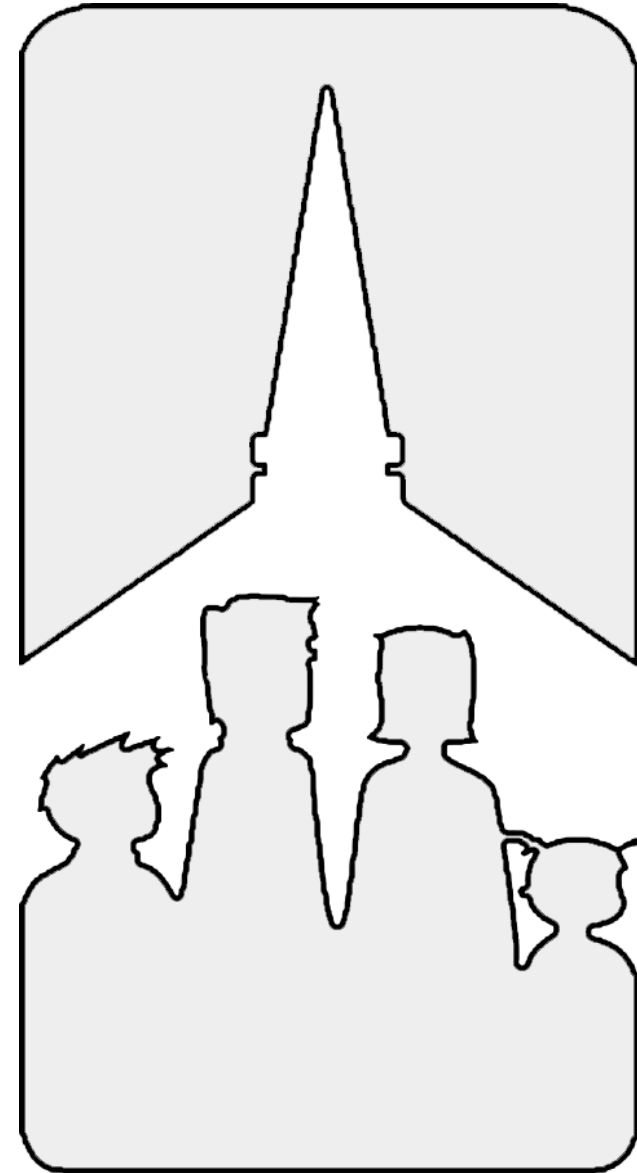

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

4th Fest Prep Day Sunday - May 27th After Church

I know it's crazy to think about but it will be here before you know. So let's stay ahead of the game!

So I came down with a stomach bug this last weekend, and Pastor Eric kindly agreed to cover Sunday for me. Now I don't know what he is going to talk about, but I do know what I was going to talk about.

Judges. Not the kind that we know of, the kind that sit in courtrooms. But the Biblical kind. The ones that stepped up to leadership in the early days of Israel, when the people had not yet begged God for a King. They were often one part warrior, one part ruler, and sprinkled with a touch of prophet.

What I enjoy about this book, is it's overall theme. There is a repeated phrase throughout the text. "And everyone did as they saw fit in their own eyes." This phrase appears over and over again followed by ...

The Israelites turned away from God

The Israelites were again oppressed by their enemies

The Israelites cried out to God for help

God sends them a Judge to set things right.

It is a pattern repeated almost a dozen times in the few hundred years that the book of Judges covers. One that is repeated to this very day.

I mean it doesn't take cultural scholar or a sociological genius to look around and see that everyone basically does what they want to do whether it is the right thing to do or not. That there is no consideration of what God says we should or should not be doing. We simply just do what we want and when it goes bad, we blame Him or ask Him to fix it.

So we're about to embark on a journey that teaches us to do what God wants us to do first and everything else ... way behind His will. So I hope you enjoy our next run. "The Trouble With What Man Sees Fit"
