Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Cookout in the Park at Rice Lake (Also Father's Day)

And then after we've picked and packed and cut and chopped berries ... we'll go eat some stuff and hang out at the park!!!

So last week we talked about why the Lord sent Judges to Israel. This week we're going to begin discussing the Who were the Judges of Israel. There were many of them. Men and Women. They sometimes led the people at the same time as other Judges, but were often separated by entire generations. They were a wide and diverse group. But they did all seem to have something in common.

They seemed to be misfits and outcasts and maybe just in the wrong place at the wrong time. Or more accurately when discussing what God does among His people they were in what seemed to them to be the wrong place, but just at the right time for God to use them.

The Judges are some of the most unlikely heroes in scripture. While it is very true and an almost perfect theme in God's word to see the broken and the unworthy used mightily by Him, I'm not sure there is a more apparent place in the Word that records this concept than Judges.

And that dear friends should give us hope. So often it is the pity party cry of God's people that they are weak and unfit to do His work. That they believe they are woefully unprepared to engage in His calling on their lives. It would seem that even when a believer in Christ has spent years devoting themselves to training and making a great effort to change their lives, they still feel completely inadequate to the task.

And ... there is actually a lot of truth to that thought. Why? Because it is only in His strength that we can do anything for the Kingdom. You are 100% incapable of doing what He asks. Until He calls you to. Then ... then, if you stay in His will, it becomes actually impossible for you to fail.

God doesn't always call the equipped, but He always equips the called.

So go forth and accomplish that which He has called you to do!
