
At Whitewater Family Church we strive to pursue God with honesty and excellence by building stronger families, engaging in mentor based discipleship, and encouraging personal calling and ministry.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

So we're going to preach out of the book of James for a while. The pastors and I have decided to rotate messages for the rest of the summer and on our turn take the next part of the book.

So let's do a little background work on James.

James is believed to have been the next oldest brother in Jesus' family. That's right, in spite of the popular myth that Jesus had no other siblings the word declares that He, in fact, had several. It also tells us that James was among the first people that He visited after the resurrection. Even though he wasn't one of the Disciples, and at one point thought it best to have Jesus taken to an asylum, it is clear that James was a very important person to Christ.

Now, after the resurrection, James becomes the leader of the Jerusalem Church, and it is abundantly clear from his teachings to the churches that he has been radically transformed by the knowledge that his earthly brother was in fact the Messiah. He leads with a passion and a fervor unparalleled by most of his contemporaries. Perhaps only Paul displayed a greater zeal for his faith than James.

He is also a full on no nonsense type of leader. He doesn't beat around bushes, and he isn't soft when it comes to the problems facing the church. He tells it like it is and moves on expecting the reader to change what is necessary or be left behind in their walk of faith.

It is a style and approach that is not well received in today's day and age of soft messages and easy listening. But that doesn't mean that James' approach is wrong, just difficult. So if you're willing to be changed, then the book of James has much wisdom to offer.
