Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Hey everyone, so this morning Connor is sharing from James with us. Which I for one think is super neat. One of our students has returned from Bible College and is ready to take on ministry opportunities. Which, I'm guessing he would love some prayer on since he still isn't 100% sure where his next steps are ... but really are any of us 100% sure? Food for thought?

Speaking of food. Today's scripture passage is going to deal with playing favorites when it comes to how we treat one another in social gatherings. Which when it comes to Christians usually involves eating something. Usually ... almost always ... Yup.

Basically today's passage says it is a major sin to play favorites with one another especially when it comes to social and monetary status. The part I want to focus on a little more is what James calls the Royal Law. "Love your neighbor as yourself." I don't know about you but when scripture refers to something Jesus says as the "Royal Law" I think we should probably pay attention to that. A lot ... like ... always.

So that leave us with how exactly do we carry out the Royal Law. Love your neighbor as yourself. Not really all that complicated. You treat everyone else the way you want to be treated. So the short of it is this. You don't look down on people for the things that have gone on in their lives. You help those who need it. You don't judge them for their mistakes. You love unconditionally. You sacrifice when they're in need. You do everything you can to make sure those around you are doing ok.

That's the Royal Law ... and according to Christ, when combined with Loving the Lord with everything you got. Is really all you ever need.
