
At Whitewater Family Church we strive to pursue God with honesty and excellence by building stronger families, engaging in mentor based discipleship, and encouraging personal calling and ministry.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Dinosaurs are Coming!

That's right it's time to start thinking about costumes, decorations, and CANDY! Halloween will be here before we know it!

This is one of the oldest discussions in the Faith. Are we saved by works or faith? Is faith in and of itself a work? Does doing works cement our faith? And on and on ... Basically, if we're being honest, the reason this argument exists is because people are attempting to boil down Christianity into a formulae. One that asks a nefarious question. "Just how much do I have to do to qualify as a Christian?"

And when that's how it is it all falls apart right from the get go.

Faith in Christ is never about meeting the minimum. It is always ... ALWAYS ... about stretching everything you are just a little further to get more done for the kingdom of God.

Most folks answer this conundrum over faith and deeds by making the argument that if you have the "right kind" of faith then you will obviously have deeds that follow. And while that is 100% absolutely true where this line of thinking falls apart is what we consider as people the right kinds of faith and the right kinds of deeds.

We typically look at things like devotional time, the way we interact with one another, and church attendance. Do you look like, talk like, and spend time with other like-minded people? You do? Well then you have deeds that qualify your faith ... only ... you might not.

Faith and Deeds that are truly wedded together, the kind that please God, are more self sacrificing, than adjusting your behavior. They look more like they've been on a cross not a couch. More like a servant. More like a martyr. It takes care of other first. It gives till it hurts and dies for what it loves. So the question is ... do you have deeds that qualify for faith? A question that needs an answer.
