Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Dinosaurs are Coming!

That's right it's time to start thinking about costumes, decorations, and CANDY! Halloween will be here before we know it!

There is a whole lot in James' section here today. But we can't forget that the binding concept is submit yourselves to God. Everything else he is talking about here is bound to that one simple to understand and extraordinarily difficult to process idea. Submitting yourself to God.

Now that should probably bear some explanation. What does it mean to submit ourselves to God. Well conceptually it is quite easy. Think of it as God is your Boss in life and so you're supposed to do what He tells you to do. Easy to grasp ahold of that idea, much harder to put it into practice.

I mean honestly, how many of us do things our own way for our earthly bosses. We get the task done sure, but did we really do it according to best practice and procedures. Sometimes yes ... sometimes no. And even when we do things our bosses way, often we believe our way is better, so we accomplish the task properly but our attitude is ... problematic? Less than stellar? Hot garbage?

You see Godly submission has far less to do with our results than it does with our relationship. Rebellion in the Kingdom of God begins in the heart and with our motives. Our actions are just the result. Jesus makes this abundantly clear in a number of passages. James makes the same connection when he talks about the tongue in the previous chapter and here when he blatantly says you ask with wrong motives.

So when we look our faith and we look at how we carry out God's instructions. Do you do so with a joyful heart? Or do you do so with a heart that believes there should and must be a better way? Or do you even do the things He asks at all? Or are you stuck in a place where your life is un-submissive? Questions worth asking.
