Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

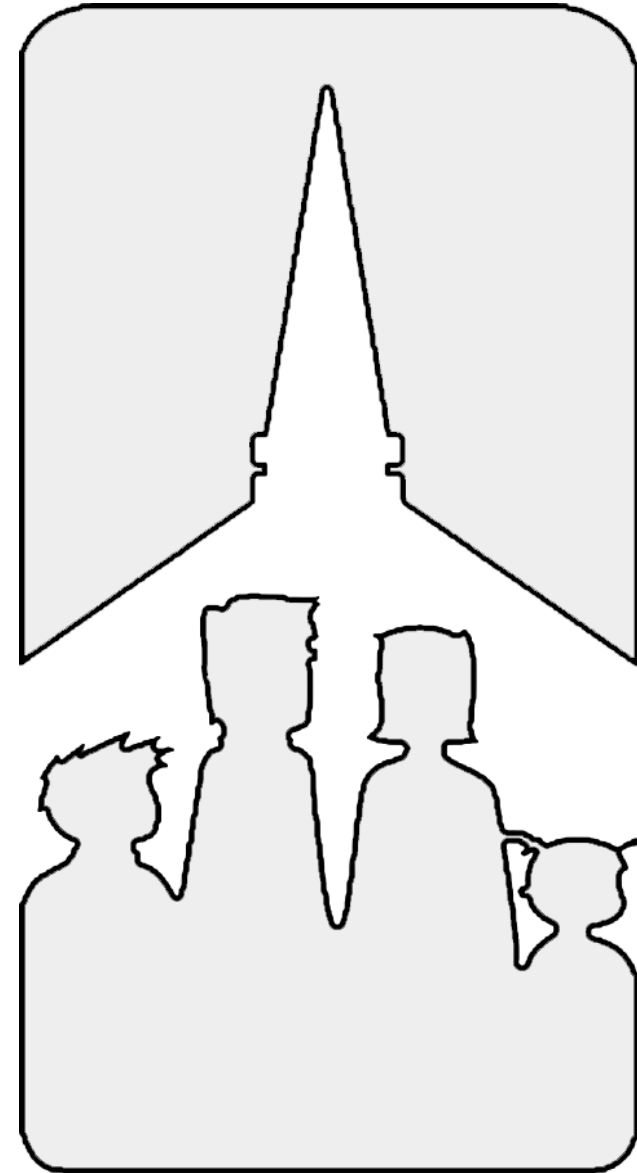

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

If there is one thing I know for sure ... you know, that's not all that intelligent of a phrase. There are lot of things we're sure of as people, right? But this thing I'm going to talk about today is one of those things I'm really SURE of ... anyway ...

If there is one thing I know for sure, its that if you hang around me long enough I'm going to say something dumb, offensive, or really off. How do I know that's true? Well, to put it simply, I spend a lot of time with myself so I know what comes out of this mouth of mine.

We all do it you know. Say things we should not have said. Use words and phrases we should not have used. Let slip things that we shouldn't even be thinking let alone saying. Keeping your tongue in check is most likely one of the hardest things to do as a person and as a believer it gets even more difficult.

Jesus said that out of the heart the mouth speaks. And Jeremiah teaches us that the heart is deceitful above all else. And James told us that we sin when we are led away by our own evil desires. And proverbs says that even a fool is thought wise when he holds his tongue. The Bible has a lot to say on words and how we use them.

Unfortunately we don't always use them with morals or intelligence. I know sometimes when I speak my brain is screaming for me to stop. "Oh no! Words are coming out!" However, we need to be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slower to respond.

There is wisdom in learning to tame your tongue. Its hard, and there will be plenty of times you fail. But the price we pay for not doing so is quite high. And the rewards we gain for keeping a leash on our words and thoughts is well worth it.
