Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Dinosaurs are Coming!

That's right it's time to start thinking about costumes, decorations, and CANDY! Halloween will be here before we know it!

Today in James we get two lessons. One about rich oppressors and how they will be judged in the end for their behaviors. How, all of their wealth here will just rot or corrode and will have no meaning in the end. It reminds us to be thankful for what we do have and to remember that God's plan is bigger than the just here and now. And even though things don't seem fair that the promise land is worth it, we just need to be patient.

This leads us into the second lesson of the morning...Patience in suffering. I don't know about the rest of you but Patience is not a word in my vocabulary that I like to think about. In this world it is go, go, go all day long. Day after day, week after week, month after month. It's hard to stop and be patient and wait for things to happen. That means we may not have control on the situation, and that can be scary. And then we add the suffering part. To have to wait while it feels like everything around us is falling apart... Sometimes it seems like too much to ask of someone.

But over the years I have learned that if I do just put a halt to the hustle and bustle of the world and wait on the Lord. Wait for His plan and let Him control the ride, things turn out so much better. His plan really is for the best and it may not be what I thought it should be but that's okay. When in the struggle remind yourself: It's His timing, not mine. His will, not mine. His plan, not mine. His glory, not mine.
