Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

This morning I'm going to ask you three questions. Questions that demand answers. And not just any answers. Right answers. We live in a world full of opinions and options. A world almost completely devoid of right answers. If we're going to lead people to Christ it is way past time we start giving out the information they need.

Why did Jesus come? End to beginning. Why did the Son of God walk this earth? Most of us will likely answer this "To die on the cross" and while that is a part of it, it isn't the whole. The Cross and Resurrection were the climatic events in the time He was here. But those aren't why he came. He said it himself a few different ways, but always it comes down to this. "The son of man came to seek and save that which was lost" And the Lost, my friends ... is us.

Question Two. How do we become "Un-Lost"? (Saved, Redeemed, Born Again ... etc.) This is actually a multi-step self awareness event that begins with the realization that we're lost and culminates with a decision to ask Christ to rescue us. It isn't a simple "OH DANG I'M LOST!" moment. It is more complex and requires a much deeper revelation of relational position between you and God. And then it requires you to admit that and a partnership with God to change.

Lastly ... what comes after being saved? Well, it starts with the aforementioned change, but it continues with a dedication to be more like Christ every day. And what does becoming more like Jesus really look like? I can give you a hint. If you are becoming more like Jesus then you are consumed with doing the things that Jesus did. And just what did Jesus do? (See Question One)

Jesus brought the forgiveness of Heaven to the lost of the Earth ...

Three Questions

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector Luke 19:1-10

I. What did you hear from the Word this morning?

(Your initial thoughts on the Scripture)

II. What did Pastor focus on in his message?

(Your thoughts on the Topic)

III. What is your "Take Away" from the message?

(How can you apply this to your life?)
