Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

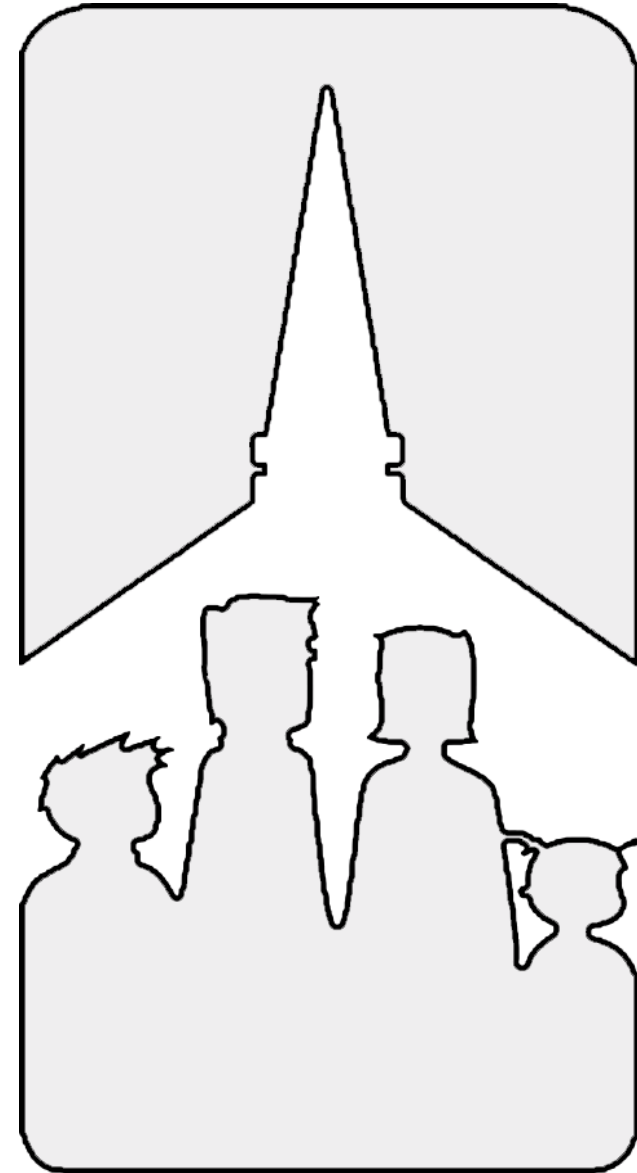

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Leadership Meeting - November, 4th

Following church we will have lunch and discuss the up coming church events and plan the rest of the year.

There is a series of passages and scriptures in the book of Romans that have been long pointed toward as a great guideline in order to show people the Lord's plan and path out of darkness and into the Light of the Lord God Himself.

And typically when you are reading my little blurps there is a moment where I say something like "You'd think so but ..." or "Not Today!" "Or yeah that's wrong" However, your ah ha moment comes today only in the context of Ah HA, there is no Ah Ha!

I think the Romans Road, as it is often called, is an exceptional scriptural path that points out the line of thinking and belief that one must travel in order to not only follow Christ but be set free from the pain of eternal death and separation from God. In fact it is the bullet point list of the entire book of Romans. A book that can be notoriously heady in theology. These handful of verses are the guideposts of everything else that Paul gets into.

A good many Christian often feel underprepared to explain the Gospel to others around them in a way that not only communicates the truth but also is easy to grasp for those who hear. The Romans Road achieves that. It is simple and easy.

It starts with the state of mankind. That we're all broken and faulty. We're imperfect and that makes us sinners. And because we're all imperfect and sinners, we will be rewarded accordingly, with Death. Eternal separation from God in Death. But we are saved from this by the Gift of God his forgiveness and Eternal life.

And how does one get that gift. You believe in the one who gave it. You believe in Jesus Christ. It is really that easy. Like walking a road.
