Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

JURASSIC MAZE-October 31st

We are now just a little more than 3 weeks away from our outreach. Time of that Candy to come pouring in and decoration projects to start. Halloween will be here before we know it!

I love how we tell stories to children. We like to highlight the things that we know will captivate their imaginations. Things that make excellent coloring book pages. You know, the things that they will remember. David and Goliath, Jonah and the Whale, those types of stories that have a vivid memorable component.

But what if we've spent all of our time focusing on the wrong things. The parts of the story that while great and important aren't nearly the most important part of the story.

Take today for example. If you google search coloring pages for this story you will find an almost endless return of large catches of fish. And that's cool ... you know what you don't find almost any of. Peter doubting, Peter admitting he is a sinner and asking the Lord to leave him alone, and Peter then leaving with Jesus.

But what is more important? What were the things in Peter's life that Jesus was addressing? Surely as a fisherman a lack of fish is a rather frustrating problem, but did Christ care about fish? No he cared about the men in those boats. And he cared about all the people those men would affect with their lives.

We focus sometimes on the wrong things. Focusing on the fish is basically saying "Jesus make my job better so I can more effectively share the Gospel." The only thing you need to do in life to better share the Gospel is not worry about anything else. You might have been a sinner. You might have to leave things behind. You might have to (insert something here) but none of that is what really matters, and keeping our focus on those things only slows us down.

Peter understood this. I wonder why it is so hard for us to.
