Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Visitor Coming - Wednesday, December 12th - 6:00pm

This month we have decided to invite a friend in to talk to us about something they've been called to do. Come learn more about it and support them on their journey. There will be a Wednesday Evening Pot Luck!!!!

I'm going to state the obvious here, but it is an obvious that people often seem to miss, so maybe its obviously unobvious. If you want to bring people to Christ you have to talk to people about Christ.

You would think everyone understood things like that. But according to the way we behave we simply do not. We understand that someone needs to tell them, but rarely do we put that burden on ourselves. We always seem to assume that someone else is going to do that part. It's a really dangerous assumption to make. The right assumption to make is, no one else is going to do it. Which leaves you as the only option.

So you have to do things and live your life in such a way that it creates an environment and an atmosphere in which people are drawn to and become curious about God. This is something Jesus did all the time. He created an atmosphere that prompted questions and those questions brought results. The best part of the whole thing is a lot of the time He wasn't even doing anything flashy. He was simply talking to people.

But if you and I want to create these types of moments then we have to do something. Its not really hard, but it can be a little scary. What is it? Well, to paraphrase a famous aquatic singer ... "You gotta go where the people are." You actually have to get away from the familiar places where you spend so much of your time and go someplace else. It's a good time of year for that. Christmas seems to create these environments all on its on. Between local events and all of the parties people throw. The dinners and reconnections. There are ample opportunities out there if you are willing to use them.
