Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

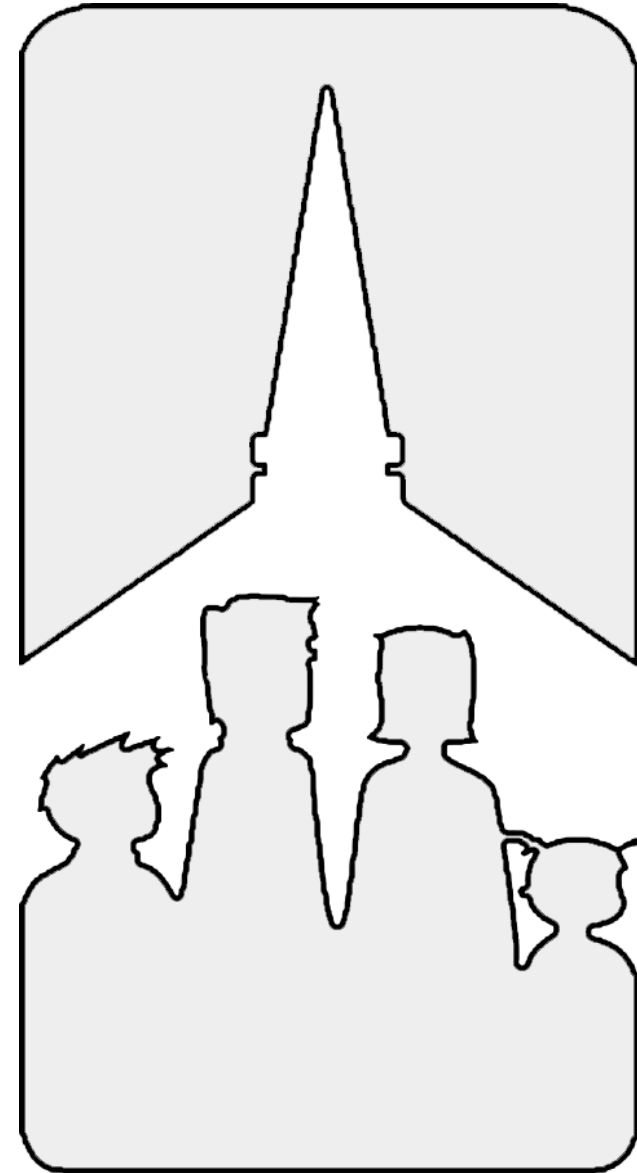

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

So I've mentioned something quite a few times over the past few months when we talk about sharing our faith. I do believe it is one of the most important concepts we need to put into practice every time we intend to speak to people about or demonstrate the goodness of the Gospel. The concept is ... Knowing your Audience.

It would seem to me one of those matters that is a "No Brainer". An issue that simply makes so much sense that there is no need to talk about it. But unfortunately for what ever reason that is simply not the case. There is no such thing as a "no brainer" when it comes to sharing the Gospel. There is either doing it intelligently or there is bungling through it. Sometimes bungling works (Usually because the Holy Spirit bails us out) but understanding the situation you are in seems to work far better.

Everyone on this planet is different. And not just in the unique genetic makeup of an individual. Everything from personality to experiences to choices to perspectives to preferences ... we are all unique. Some of us more drastically than others. And that means what one person would understand and respond to positively another person might respond to very negatively.

Therefore every person we meet will need a different approach to the Gospel. Always remember that the core of the Gospel Message never changes. That God loves us, and loves us so much that Christ died for our trespasses so that we could have a proper relationship with Him again. BUT the method in which we present that can vary wildly. Understand those around you so that you can communicate with them in a way they can relate to. After all, it is what Jesus did.
