Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Dinners with Pastor

Its been a few years since we've done these. I would like to correct that. What is a dinner with Pastor? Well it is exactly what is sounds like. We schedule a time and then do dinner. Can it be more than just an individual or couples? Sure! Is it just dinner? NOPE! Lunch, Breakfast, 11-zies. It doesn't matter. What does matter is you and Lynn and I and at least some snacks! See us today to start scheduling.

Have you ever heard of a fella named Telemachus? Probably not, but you are very certainly familiar with his work. Born around the year 400AD in Eurasia ... Probably Turkey. Telemachus converted at some point to Christianity. And that is really all we know about him ... until. Until he changed the course of the most powerful Empire in the Western World.

Most Sundays starting in August and lasting until February the United States of America engages in a sporting ritual. We watch the Gladiators of the Gridiron battle it out for hours. Slamming into one another with painful tackles and brutal hits and we eat it up. It is the most watched sport in America. As far as violence it is at the top of the list of brutal team sports.

There was a time in ancient history that there were different kinds of gladiators. A point where men faced other men or feral beasts with sword and spear, if they were lucky. Often times, people, Christians in particular, were tossed into the arena with little more than a loin cloth, if that even. Whether armed or not they engaged in a brutal battle to the death. Feral starved lions and tigers were set lose on defenseless men, women, and children. Professional combatants fought until one man fell and the crowd chanted "Recipe Ferrum" "Receive the Steel" and was slain.

Back to Telemachus. A believer with nothing more than a robe, one afternoon jumped into the arena calling out for the games to stop. For people to turn to Gods Mercy. The crowd booed him and the Gladiator whom Telemachus had interrupted put an axe in his head. As he lay there, silence fell over the arena ... forever. That was the day the games ended. Or at least that's how the story goes. It probably took a bit longer than one afternoon. But it is remembered that he did it in a day. It cost him everything, but he gave it to stop a nation from murdering for sport.

What are you willing to give, to stop that which Christ has said must come to an end? It isn't normally "Recipe Ferrum" But it always costs something.
