Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Dinners with Pastor

Its been a few years since we've done these. I would like to correct that. What is a dinner with Pastor? Well it is exactly what it sounds like. We schedule a time and then do dinner. Can it be more than just an individual or couples? Sure! Is it just dinner? NOPE! Lunch, Breakfast, 11-zies. It doesn't matter. What does matter is you and Lynn and I and at least some snacks! See us today to start scheduling.

You know one of my favorite things in the world is watching, reading, or listening to a mystery type story unfold. I love getting to the end and having the teller make the reveals. I then get to either sit back and proclaim that I had figured it out or I get to be surprised that the author fooled me. I love both of those. The first, because I love that kind of surprise. The second, because I'm really good at figuring it out.

Want to know my secret? I go into a story knowing that everything that happens before the end 100% intentional. Whether it is a mystery or a fable. An instructional piece or a children's story. The Author of it has intentionally written down the things that you need to know in order to understand the meaning and solve the puzzle. From a certain point of view every single word is a spoiler. Do you know God's Word works exactly the same way? If you didn't, you weren't paying attention to what I just told you. I even capitalized "Author" to designate who I was speaking about.

In Philippians Paul writes down that he has learned the secret to being content in every situation. But after telling you he knows a secret he never plainly tells you what it is. Jerk. Oh wait ... or did he? Of course he did. He just finished telling his audience and now us in the last few paragraphs what a believer must do in order to live worry and anxiety free when trials and troubles come their way. And while many of us were taking note of what he was saying, many of us were waiting to be plainly told and missed the big reveal? The answers to a life where the cares of the world are not insurmountable. A life where we easily place our wants, needs, desires, and situations squarely on the Cross. Paul told us the secret, early on ...

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
