Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

I want us to look at a type of person that every church has. The faithful servants who do so many things out of a love for what God is doing and a love for those they consider their family in Christ. They are not often noticed, rarely rewarded, and even less are they thanked. But that's ok with them, they do not do what they do for the earthly accolades of other people. They do it because they learned the most important of commandments far better than the rest of us.

The Bible is overflowing with Characters like these. And while so many people strive to be and enjoy the spotlight of being a David or a Moses or a Paul... the Jonathans, the Stephens, the Siluses, the Ruth's, the Tituses, the Aarons, and all the others who came alongside the leaders and heroes of our faith to help them succeed.

Jesus had many of these people around Him and it should come as no surprise that many of them were women. It is really only recently in human culture that women have earned even a semblance of equality. There have been moments, sure, but typically they were few and far between. Men have always dominated the landscape of culture, and Jesus' time was no different... Only He was different. He did things for many marginalized people that flew in the face of both the Roman and Hebrew culture.

He gathered people that others ignored. He gathered the women, he gathered the young, he gathered the outcasts, and he gathered the sinful, and Jesus treated them equally. He didn't just make them noticed. He made them matter. And many of these people in response, knowing how culture quietly accepted the Lord's attention and both served and sat at the Lord's feet, treated as not simply followers but friends and loved ones.

People like these still inhabit our churches today, loving and serving the Lord in ways that many others could not. They are some of our greatest examples of faithfulness. And we couldn't do it without them.
