Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Doing what we are told to do is something that is instilled into human culture from the earliest of ages. Even as babies before we can make sensible decisions we are repeatedly encouraged to do what we are told to do. Today I want to talk a little bit about three styles of obedience that were displayed during Easter by the Soldiers.

The Blind Obedient—there are people out there who, whether motivated by love, fear, or by duty, will always do what they are told to do. Usually no matter what. Typically without opposition or questioning the command. They very often align with what is commanded.

The Considerant—There are a lot of people who know what they have signed up to do, but still weigh the options of what they are doing. Sometimes it is just a job, but more often it is more than that. There is a willingness to go along. An alignment of ideals keeps them making obedient choices. Although it can be fear motivated. They don't want to risk the backlash if they disobey that keeps them doing what they are told. Or sometimes the fear of disappointing those they consider superior.

The Unwilling Partner—These are people who would much rather disobey than do what they are being told to do. They want nothing to do with the command, but feel like they have no choice at all in the matter. They become unwilling participants in the course, and given the first opportunity to stop will do so.

There are all three of these types of people in the Easter Story, and more. They move in and out of the background almost unnoticed. They are easy to overlook and we often forget about the powerful impact that these people had on the events of that weekend. It is something worth remembering as we examine the scriptures.

But how does Christ want us to Obey? With consideration and thought driven by love and devotion. He wants willing partners, who are free of fear and desire to be called upon His name.
