Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

Today—What is Truth? The Question of the Ages, by Pontius Pilate

4/14—The Betrayal of Best Friends? The Disciples

4/21—Resurrection Sunday

May 5th—All Church Vote Right After Service

We will be voting to remove the Church from District Protection. Pastor Mike is available for any questions you have about this vote, and what it means for the church moving forward. This is an exciting day for all of us as it marks a huge milestone in our Church's life. There will be a celebratory Pot Luck to follow!

Today we are talking about the question of the ages. What is Truth?

Since as long as mankind has been recording philosophy this type of quest has been asked over and over again. It has come in many forms and taken a lot of different paths but the end goal is always the same. It is to discover whether or not mankind is held to one spiritual or ethical standard, or if there are as many options as there are people. For many it is a form of the question first asked of mankind in the Garden of Eden. "Did God really say..."

Is there really one standard? Or are there lots of them? Is the road really narrow? Or are there many roads? Is Jesus The Way, The Truth, and The Life? Or was he just some hippie teacher dude living the good life back in the day who ran afoul of the authorities?

It's the question of the ages friends. One that deserves answers.

Pilate when confronted with this conundrum during Jesus' trial does what most Romans and Eurasians would have done at the time. He declared that "truth" is relevant to the believer. In a way that resonates with most of the modern world today he dug his heels in and basically said while many, my wife included, believe this man to be the King of the Jews and Their Messiah, I have decided to believe otherwise and therefore I am self justified. Justification in our own eyes, by our own personal standards, and guided by our own thought and feelings... regardless of the actual Truth.

That is a popular place to live these days. And while that may ease the conscience of most people, and help us to feel better about our own behaviors. It does not actually ever really resolve the issue of Truth and whether or not it is out there.

You see Truth does exist, and the things about Truth... It does not require your belief. It simply is. Furthermore, I can tell you with the utmost confidence that Truth not only exists but has a name. That name is Jesus of Nazareth. He is Truth personified. Making His way right regardless of our thoughts on the matter. And that is something each and every one of us should be getting behind no matter our personal feelings on the matter.
