Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

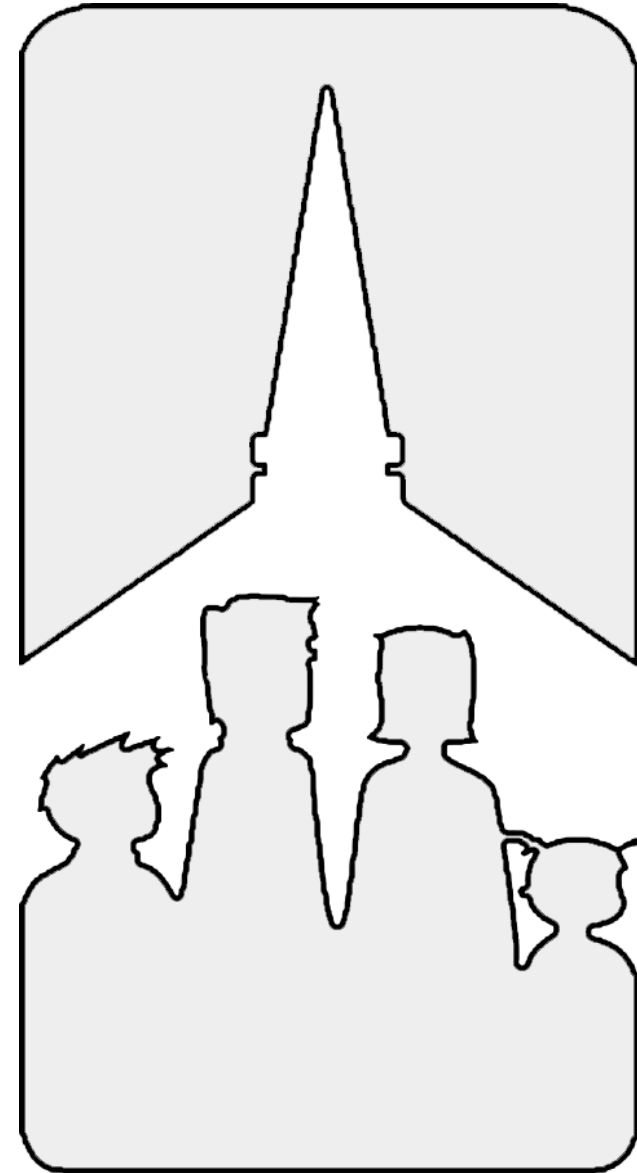

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

5/26 When Your Plans and God's Plans Conflict

Now obviously to say that God is good at things is the greatest understatement of all time. When our Lord does something it is not only good... according to His plan, it is perfect. That's an important distinction to keep in mind. That some things God has done seem as if they are flawed, but He has a perfect plan and even something that seems broken finds its place into the perfection of the King.

Easter Sunday was a culmination of the perfect plan put into motion before the creation of the universe. There is a very interesting thing to keep in mind when thinking about the Creator. He is perfect, but His creation is not. Part of His perfection is due to Him never having been created. So anything made comes with is a slice of imperfection simply due to being created. However, that doesn't mean His actions were. It is an important distinction and important to the plan.

He knew going into all this that in order to create free will in a being, so that true relationship could happen that it was going to come out broken. It is an inevitability of creation. Sooner or later it breaks down. And so He enacted a plan that created beings who would freely choose Him, and this plan accounted for their shortcomings. Their seemingly endless wilderness of shortcomings.

That plan has always had to do with what is God willing to do for His people that they are unable to do for themselves. From the Garden to the Grave He has made a way for Mankind. He planned the Cross of Christ before He said "Let there be light!" and He knew the outcome of every last one of us along the way.

So whether you are a believer who like the sisters works instead of sits, or sits instead of works. Or part of the mob culture of anger being driven by political powers. Or someone who knows they've done wrong. Or a Soldier following orders. Or looking for an escape from the truth. Or a best friend who has betrayed. Whatever it is, He planned for you! There is forgiveness and grace at the Cross and freedom and adoption at the Empty Tomb. He is calling his Children home today. Answer.
