Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What denomination are you affiliated with?

A: We're part of the Assemblies of God Fellowship. You can find our statement of truths here. www.ag.org under the "Beliefs" tab.

Q: Are you a Bible based Christian Church?

A: Absolutely. We take the Word of God very seriously and our Pastors have dedicated their lives to proper understanding and teaching of the Scripture.

Q: What do you mean by Family Church? What is a Family Church?

A: We're a church of Christian Believers who are dedicated to the development and values of the traditional family, but who also understand that the contemporary family is often just as important, if not more important, to the people in them. As a "Family Church" we're committed to bringing both the traditional and the contemporary family together as a Spiritual Family.

Q: What kind of programs do you run for kids and families?

A: We tend to stay away from "programs" in the traditional sense, instead focusing more on what meets the needs of the individuals attending our church. To accomplish that we spend more time focusing on the kids in the services than the average church does. That said, we do have a Jr/Sr High Youth Ministry and a bi-weekly Children's Ministry.

Q: Are the pastor's available for questions and counseling?

A: Absolutely! Connecting with people is our calling. The Leadership here believes in Bi-Vocational ministry, which means they all have other jobs, but we will happily make every effort to connect with someone who wants some of our time.

This is a great Mother's Day gift idea!

When one thing ends something new begins.

This is the way of all things. It is the way that God designed the Universe to operate. It is the way our lives unfold. It is the greatest challenge that the disciples had to deal with once they realized that Jesus as they had known Him these past three years was never coming back. That they were now followers and witnesses to the resurrected Christ.

In those few short weeks between Christ's death and resurrection and His ascension into the Heavens was preparation for the beginning of something. It was something that the disciples feared and maybe even wanted to reject. It was something that they probably felt forced upon them. It was also unavoidable for them... if they were to stay disciples of the Living God. And as we know 120 of them embraced the coming change. They let go of what was and held fast to the newness that the Holy Spirit brought to them. And that friends, changed the world.

Today for us is one of those days. Years ago the church found itself in a tough spot. Their options were slim and there were doors closing all around them. But a handful of people held on to Christ and to the dream that was the Assembly of God Church here in Whitewater.

And here we are almost eight years later.

It has been a wild ride. We've had ups and downs and struggles and victories. We've had friends move to the far ends of the earth, and others to Minnesota and... Chicago (Shudder). We sent saints home to the presence of the Lord and we've hugged farewell and sent off with our blessings others whose life in Christ and their calling in ministry have sent them elsewhere.

But in Christ time and again all things are new. When one period ends for the Believer another begins. So what is one to do when those scary days of new things come. We embrace them fully. We trust that the Lord works all things together for the good of those who Love and Serve Him. And we continue to Love the Lord and spread His Gospel.
